Shakespeare at Winedale is an academic course, for six hours credit, offered through the Department of English at the University of Texas at Austin. Its purpose is to explore Shakespeare through performance, and it is open to students from any discipline, regardless of previous study or experience. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Center, working seven days a week in the old German hay barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale. For more information, please contact James Loehlin in the University of Texas Department of English, e-mail us at shakespeare-at-winedale@mail.utexas.edu, or write to Shakespeare at Winedale, 1 University Station B 5000, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712-1164.

Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach

With the generous support of the Houston Endowment, Shakespeare at Winedale is undertaking a Shakespeare-in-performance program for elementary school children. We are conducting workshops at several schools as well as at UT, and participants perform every year at the spring Winedale Festival of Play. For more information, please contact Clayton Stromberger at cstromberger@mail.utexas.edu. The summer component of the Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach Program, Camp Shakespeare, is an intensive two-week residential experience for young people. This summer we held two sessions: students in the first session performed A Midsummer Night's Dream, students in the second, Much Ado About Nothing. Camp Shakespeare is directed by Doc Ayres with the assistance of Dallas Stobaugh and Kendle Wade.
