Shakespeare at Winedale is a program of the University of Texas Department of English that invites students and audiences to explore Shakespeare through performance. There are three distinct dimensions to Shakespeare at Winedale: the spring and summer classes for college students, the Outreach program, and Camp Shakespeare. These are coordinated through our office at UT, but each has its director, budget, and funding procedures.

The summer program is an academic course, for six hours credit, that involves the intensive study and performance of Shakespeare’s plays. It is open to students from any discipline, regardless of previous experience. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Complex, working seven days a week in the old German hay barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale.

The Fortieth Anniversary Season

2010 marks the fortieth year of Shakespeare at Winedale. The program was founded by Dr. James B. Ayres in 1970, when he first brought students out to Winedale at the behest of Miss Ima Hogg, the great patron and original donor of the Winedale Historical Complex. This summer’s special anniversary will be marked by alumni performances throughout the summer. Former students will present short scenes from throughout the Shakespeare canon before Saturday and Sunday performances. The 40th Anniversary Season will conclude with a special Reunion performance on Saturday, August 14th, at 2 pm. Reservations are essential for this very special event.

Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach

Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach is our Shakespeare-in-performance program for elementary school children. Every year, Outreach Coordinator Clayton Stromberger conducts workshops and residencies at several schools as well as a ‘Saturday Shakespeare’ project at UT. Participants perform every year at the spring Winedale Festival of Play, and at the UT Children’s Shakespeare Festival on campus. We also have a student organization, SHOUT, that encourages students to get involved with teaching Shakespeare to young people. For more information, please contact Clayton Stromberger at cstromberger@mail.utexas.edu.

Camp Shakespeare

Camp Shakespeare is a two-week residential camp for young people, ages 10-16, held in Round Top, with daily activity at Winedale. The Camp is directed by the Founding Director of Shakespeare at Winedale, James B. Ayres. There were two Camp sessions earlier this summer; they performed A Midsummer Night’s Dream and As You Like It. The Camp counselors were Robin Thompson and Kendle Wade. Camp Shakespeare accepts applications from candidates anywhere, in public, private, or home schools. Questions of any kind should be directed to Doc Ayres at jayres@cvctx.com.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to acknowledge, with many thanks, all those who helped make Shakespeare at Winedale possible in 2010:

The staff of the Winedale Historical Center, under its Administrative Manager, Barbara White, including Elroy, Raylon, Karel, Beth, Brent, Harry, and Ken, and to Becky and the cooks for their delicious meals. Continued thanks to Blue Bell and Mark Metts, for helping us to air-condition the barn.

Thanks to Dan and Tina Lehane for inviting us to a lovely day at their house in Cat Spring. Bob and Maxine Lain, for inviting us to dinner, and for Maxine’s invaluable sewing help. Steve Price and Daniel Friedman, for stage combat assistance. Thanks to Jeff Larsen for armor and weaponry. Clayton Stromberger, for bringing young people out to work with us. Many thanks to Round Top Mercantile, Royer’s Round Top Cafe and the Festival-Institute at Round Top for their support and kindness. To Paula Rigling, our wonderful travel agent. Carolyn Townsend and Jayne Suhler, for coordinating our Dallas performance. Bill and Teresa Reynolds, Allison Hammond, and Lizz Ketterer, for care packages to the students. Thanks to Judy and Dick Perkins for their ongoing support for our program, and for providing the longhorn steer that the students have decorated. Thanks to Mark Metts, Barbara Williams, Tony Scanapico, Carol Montgomery, and all of our Shakespeare at Winedale advisory committee members. Many thanks to all the former students who came to watch early performances and brought snacks and supplies. And to Laure Loehlin, for her tireless help throughout the summer, for supply trips to Austin, and for her love and care for all of us.

Thanks to our many friends at the University of Texas, including President Bill Powers, Provost Steve Leslie, Dean Randy Diehl, Chair Elizabeth Cullingford of the English Department, Kathleen Aronson and Beth Norris in Liberal Arts Development, and Dr. Don Carleton of the Center for American History. To Annelise Notzon and Cecilia Smith-Morris of the English Department. Thanks to Liz Fisher, our wonderful program coordinator. Very special thanks to Doc Ayres for his vision in creating and sustaining Shakespeare at Winedale.
