We wish to acknowledge, with many thanks, all those who helped make Shakespeare at Winedale possible in 2014:

The staff of the Winedale Historical Center, under its Administrative Manager, Barbara White, including Beth, Tricia, Victor, and to the cooks for their delicious meals. Continued thanks to Blue Bell and Mark Metts, for helping us to air-condition the barn.

Thanks to Maxine and Alli for fantastic sewing help. Steve Price and Daniel Friedman for stage combat assistance. Clayton Stromberger, for bringing young people out to work with us. Evans Jarnefeldt, Liz Fisher, and Bob Jones, for doing workshops for the students. Christina Gutierrez, for bringing her production to the barn for us to enjoy.

Many thanks to Round Top Mercantile, Royer’s Round Top Café and the Festival-Institute at Round Top for their support and kindness.

Many thanks to Leslie and Cathy at Bird Song Cottage, for providing housing for James and Laurel and for hosting a brunch for the students. To Paula Rigling, our wonderful travel agent. Carolyn Townsend and Jayne Suhler, for help with our Dallas performance. Bill and Teresa Reynolds for care packages for the students. Thanks to Judy and Dick Perkins for their ongoing support for our program, and for providing the longhorn steer that the students have decorated. Thanks to Tony and Kay Scanapico for their continued support and help, as well as lodging for the staff. Many thanks to all the former students who came to watch early performances and brought snacks and supplies. Thanks to Rob Matney for his continued support. And to Laurel Loehlin, for her tireless help throughout the summer and for her love and care for all of us.

Thanks to our many friends at the University of Texas, including President Bill Powers, Dean Randy Diehl, Chair Elizabeth Cullington of the English Department, and Dr. Don Carleton of the Center for American History. To Cecilia Smith-Morris, Natalie Sharpe, Jene Gutierrez and Donetta Dean-Gibbs of the English Department. Thanks to Liz Fisher, our wonderful Program Coordinator, and our invaluable administrative and outreach assistant Allison Dillon. Very special thanks, as always, to Doc Ayres for his vision in creating and sustaining Shakespeare at Winedale.

Shakespeare at Winedale is a program of the University of Texas Department of English that invites students and audiences to explore Shakespeare through performance. There are three distinct dimensions to Shakespeare at Winedale: the spring and summer classes for college students, the Outreach program, and Camp Shakespeare. These are coordinated through our office at UT, but each has its director, budget, and funding procedures.

The summer program is an academic course, for six hours credit, that involves the intensive study and performance of Shakespeare’s plays. It is open (by application and interview) to students from any discipline, regardless of previous experience. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Center, working seven days a week in the old German hay barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale. For more information, please contact James Loehlin in the UT Department of English, e-mail Liz Fisher at lfisher@austin.utexas.edu, or write to Shakespeare at Winedale, 208 W 21st Street, Stop B5000, Austin, Texas 78712.

SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE OUTREACH

Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach is our Shakespeare-in-performance program for elementary schoolchildren. Every year, Outreach Coordinator Clayton Stromberger conducts workshops and residencies at several schools as well as a ‘Saturday Shakespeare’ project at UT. Participants perform every year at the spring Winedale Festival of Play, and at the UT Children’s Shakespeare Festival on campus. We also have a student organization, SHOUT, that supports our Outreach efforts. For more information, please contact Clayton Stromberger at cstromberger@austin.utexas.edu.

CAMP SHAKESPEARE

Camp Shakespeare is a two-week residential camp for young people, ages 10-16, held in Round Top, with daily activity at Winedale. The Founding Director of Shakespeare at Winedale, James B. Ayres, directs the Camp. There were two sessions earlier this summer; the students performed The Comedy of Errors and Twelfth Night. The Camp counselors were Robin Grace Thompson, Kris Adrian, Kendle Butterworth, and Austen Hyde. The interns were Gabe Colombo and Malena Pennycook. Camp Shakespeare accepts applications from candidates anywhere, in public, private, or home schools. Questions of any kind should be directed to Doc Ayres at jayres@cvctx.com.

The Friends of Shakespeare at Winedale

Shakespeare at Winedale thanks the following individuals, foundations, and organizations for their generous support of this program, Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach, and Camp Shakespeare. Your gifts make great Shakespeare and educational programs available to our entire community. Thank you for 44 years of enthusiastic support. We couldn’t do it without you. Please note the list below reflects contributions received from January 1, 2013 to July 1, 2014.

To donate to Shakespeare at Winedale, please make checks payable to the University of Texas, marked “Shakespeare at Winedale” and mail to Shakespeare at Winedale, 208 West 21st Street, Stop B5000, Austin, Texas 78712.
